

Sampling Cannula, Cannula Stoppers and Filters

A wide variety of industry standard cannula configurations and unique, proprietary QLA configurations are available for most manual and automated sampling applications. Numerous manual sampling cannula are manufactured in both electropolished 316 Stainless Steel or PEEK. Optional stoppers set the proper sampling position. Manual cannula configurations accommodate all standard tip filters.